

AUSTRIA'S PEACE OFFENSIVE NOW A CLOSED INCIDENT

Lansing Sends President's Short Reply to Swedish Minister

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Austria's peace offensive is a closed incident so far as the American government is concerned. Secretary Lansing today sent the Swedish minister the note authorized last night by President Wilson flatly rejecting in two short sentences the proposal of the Austro-Hungarian government for secret and non-binding peace discussions. It was started on the cables at once for transmission to Vienna by the foreign office at Stockholm. The president's action—brevity of the reply and the promptness with which it was delivered—drew expressions of approval during the day everywhere in Washington at the capital, among officials and through the allied diplomatic corps. Similar responses from the other nations at war with Germany are expected to follow quickly.

The senate, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican floor leader, and the ranking minority member of the foreign relations committee, voiced the feelings of congress on the subject in a prepared speech heartily approving the president's course as both wise and right. The United States, he said, can talk peace only to a Germany beaten and deprived of power further to harm a wronged world. He was followed by Senator McCumber of North Dakota, Republican, and Senator Thomas of Colorado, Democrat, with like expressions. On the house side, Representative Fess of Ohio, chairman of the Republican congressional committee spoke in approval declaring that the quick reply might jar upon diplomatic ears but is justified as a rebuke to the double dealing of our enemy.

Regarding this phase of the peace campaign as practically closed the administration is now closely watching for the next move on the part of the enemy. It is not believed that they will abandon their efforts. It has been suggested that, denied unlimited fields of secret discussion of war issues, Austria may attempt a coup by assenting to a restriction of the discussion to the principles laid down by President Wilson as the only possible basis of peace. It was said authoritatively today that such a proposition undoubtedly would be accepted. But this statement was accompanied by a significant reminder of conditions which must be met preliminary to any such discussion. These are that the central powers must withdraw completely from all occupied territory in France and Belgium, Italy, Russia and Serbia. The Germans must drop the subterfuge of the Brest-Litovsk treaty made by Germany with Russian agents, hired to betray their country. They must loosen their hold upon the wheat fields of Ukraine and the oil wells of Serbia and Russia.

Attention was called to the fact that in his reply Secretary Lansing referred to the terms upon which the United States would consider peace as having been repeatedly stated. That means not only that the four propositions laid down by President Wilson in his Fourth of July speech at Mount Vernon must be considered but that they must be considered in connection with other declarations from the same source.

It was particularly intended, it was explained that there should be held in mind the fourteen propositions stated by the president in his address to congress January 8, last. Whereas the Fourth of July speech stated simply broad general principles that should govern any peace discussion the address to congress laid down details of the position and therefore should be the governing utterance.

Basic Principles
Accordingly, before the central powers can have any peace discussions with the entente powers and America they must accept the principles of:
No secret treaties.
Freedom of the seas, except to suppress predatory nations that fail to respect international covenants.
The removal of all trade barriers.
Reduction of armaments.
Adjustment of colonial claims with reference to the wishes of the governed population.

The evacuation of Russian territory and abandonment of economic control therein.
Independence of Belgium with indemnification.
Restoration of Alsace-Lorraine.
Readjustments of Italy's frontiers.
Autonomous government for the different nationalities of Austria-Hungary.
Evacuation of Roumania, Serbia and Montenegro.
Relinquishment of Turkish control of non-Turkish populations.
An independent Polish state and, finally, a league of nations to guarantee political independence and territorial integrity to great and small states alike.

GERMANS ENGAGED IN STRENGTHENING LINE

ENEMY GIVES NO SIGN OF INTENDED COUNTER ATTACKS

American Patrols Successful in Bringing Back Prisoners—Ease with Which Yanks Advanced Proves Germans Had Underestimated Their Strength—Enemy Call Men and Boys Into Auxiliary Service.

(By the Associated Press)
(The American Army on the Lorraine Front, Sept. 17.—American artillery, infantry and aviators made emphatic replies today to the German challenge all along the newly established line. The enemy bombarded certain points with vigor and threw over quantities of gas, largely of the mustard variety, while airplanes endeavored to force their way thru the aerial defenses, but evidence was wholly lacking that the Germans were planning any attempt to regain the territory they have lost. Their high command apparently intends to adhere to the policy which resulted in the relinquishment of a large section without a bitter struggle.

Reports brought in by aviators as well as information obtained from prisoners and verified by patrols show the Germans are strengthening their trenches along the Hindenburg line but there is nothing to show they are reinforcing their lines to a degree that might indicate a strong counter movement.

Patrols Successful
Patrols sent out by the Americans have been successful not only in reconnaissance but in bringing prisoners. Many of the prisoners were stragglers but among them were the crews of several lost or isolated machine guns. In some cases they had been taken from countering patrols.

There was much German activity today on the extreme right of the line where the enemy vigorously shelled and fired the woods north of Pont-aux-Francais and the vicinity of Norroy. Machine gun action north of Beney was spirited while the German artillery was active from Haumont to the Most Plaisir farm. To the east of the Moselle there has been some skirmishing but it was of little consequence. The allied outposts are gradually pushing toward that region.

Underestimated Yanks
The comparative ease with which the Germans were driven from the positions they had held for more than three years is believed in some quarters to have been a result of underestimating the ability of the Americans. It is considered possible they may have expected General Pershing's troops, carried away by enthusiasm to overstep the limits of prudence by advancing into a region where they might have been forced to sacrifice large numbers of men or to retire. It has been specifically stated, however, that the operation was one for limited objectives only.

Enemy Slowing Up
With the American Army on the Lorraine Front, Sept. 17.—By the Associated Press.—Enemy activity has shown a decidedly slowing up in the past twenty-four hours, partly because of the aggressive nature of American fliers and partly because all the air forces behind the German lines have been greatly damaged in the persistent bombardment they have undergone.

Allied co-operation in bombing operations has been a notable contribution to the success of the offensive. French patrols yesterday engaged in eleven combats, bringing down one plane and four observation balloons. The American pursuit group had six combats sending down three planes. Reconnaissance machines took photographs and directed artillery fire. Bombing planes dropped more than eleven tons of bombs on Longkayon, Dommeroy and Barrebourg and two tons on Conflans and Audun. Observers reported the damage at Conflans was especially heavy. All enemy centers in this section have been seriously damaged in the past few days.

The Waning Man Power.
With the American Army on the Lorraine Front, Monday, Sept. 16.—By the Associated Press.—One hundred and eight German infantry battalions equivalent to twenty divisions have been disbanded. It is learned in order to fill the gap made by the past year's fighting. Women and boys are being called to the auxiliary service to replace men. Five thousand women have been mobilized for this purpose and boys of fourteen are being utilized.

Captured officers said that Germany is very tired of the war and no longer hopes to do more than keep what is its own.

ARRESTED WITH 150 REGISTRATION CARDS
CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—The arrest here today of one Thomas Burns, with 150 draft registration cards on his person, is regarded as important by the department of justice officials. On the back of each card was stamped "Cook County Local Board No. 6, 5601 West 22nd Street." The arrest was the culmination of a search based on information that cards were being sold at $10 each.

Government agents all over the country, it is said, be on the alert for the appearance of such cards. Legitimate holders may be greatly embarrassed thereby.

ELIMINATE USE OF BUGLE SIGNAL
WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Methods of modern warfare have eliminated one more romantic feature of battle. An army order just issued by the war department annouces changes in drill regulations which prohibit the use of bugle signals during an engagement. The danger of the bugle message not reaching all the troops as well as the grave possibility that the enemy would be well versed in the calls and would know what to expect, are the reasons for the change.

MANY EXECUTED IN PETROGRAD
STOCKHOLM, Sept. 17.—Wholesale executions are proceeding in Petrograd, according to private telegrams received here by the way of Helsinki. During the past week 812 persons were executed and more than 400 others are on the prescribed list. Most of them have already been made hostages.

BEGIN MAILING OF QUESTIONNAIRES TODAY

Ordered Sent By Crowder to All Men Between 19 and 36 Years of Age—Registrants Given Seven Days to Fill Them Out and Return.

Washington, Sept. 17.—Local draft boards have been ordered by Provost Marshal General Crowder to begin mailing questionnaires tomorrow to all men between 19 and 36 years of age, inclusive, who registered last Thursday except British and Canadian subjects who have thirty days to voluntarily enter the British or Canadian armies.

Ten per cent of the questionnaires are to be mailed each day. Provost Marshal General Crowder announced tonight and under the regulations each registrant is given seven days to fill out and return the document. "It is however, the earnest hope of this office that the registrants will not require as much time as this," General Crowder said, "and that every effort will be made to turn the questionnaires in promptly as possible. Under the maximum time allowed local boards, in mailing out the form, and registrants in filling them out and returning them, the questionnaires for the entire age group should be back in the hands of local boards within three weeks from tomorrow. Approximately 6,000,000 are in 19 and 36 year classes to whom questionnaires go, it was said. There are also some 40,000 additional men, between 21 and 31 years old who were added to the draft rolls Thursday, registering for the first time, and these also will be classified.

The date of the drawing that will in a measure determine the order of calling the men into the service will be announced soon.

TEN PERISH IN NEW JERSEY FACTORY FIRE

Flames Swept Building and Afforded No Time for Escape

NEWARK, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Trapped in a cloakroom on the top floor, eight girls, a boy and a man perished here today in a fire which destroyed the plant of the American Button Company. Another girl was killed when seeking to escape from the flames she leaped from a window. Nine other girls were injured several probably fatally.

At 2 o'clock the factory hummed with the industry of more than 300 young women engaged in making buttons for army and navy uniforms. At 3:30 the building was a mass of flames and smoke. At 4:30 the fire was virtually extinguished and the task of identifying victims began. The girls on the lower floors made their escape some by jumping and others by the fire escapes. Most of the dead and injured were working at the top of the building. It is believed that when they found escape by means of fire escapes and stairways cutoff they fled in a panic to the cloak room, where their bodies were later found. All were burned beyond recognition and it was only thru trinkets and bits of scorched attire that identification was possible.

Driven in the cloak room, which had but one window, only one girl summoned up courage to jump to the street below. She died almost immediately of her injuries. The fire started in a can of lacquer stored on the second floor, according to Superintendent Frederick W. Gordes who said that an explosion occurred when a defective insulated electric wire came in contact with one of the cans.

In a statement tonight Mayor Charles P. Gillen declared that an inspection which he had made of the button factory had resulted in a decision to ask the grand jury and prosecutor to make a full investigation of the fire. "I inspected the building," he said, "and on the second floor found a partition sheened off with wire and not with walls of masonry. The factory looks somewhat like a trap to me."

"I have commenced a rigid and sweeping investigation of every factory in Newark."

STATEMENTS

Official Communications Issued by Intelligence Countries Regarding War Situation.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—Sixty six German airplanes were accounted for by the British along their lines yesterday. Seven of the hostile machines were destroyed in one engagement by a British squadron. Describing the operations in the battle zone an official statement tonight says:

"There was great activity all along the British front on Sept. 16 and our machines were busily engaged in every department of their work. Photographic reconnaissance, both of forward and distant areas were carried out with completeness in spite of strong opposition and the number of aerial photographs taken exceeds any recorded total for one day."

"Observation of our artillery fire was successfully performed both by airplanes and balloons. Much damage was reported in hostile battery positions and many fires and explosions were caused."

"Nearly 24 tons of bombs were dropped by day and 15 tons on the following night, on airfields used by the enemy's night flying airplanes and on railroads and dumps."

"The fighting was intense all along the front thruout the day combats taking place a considerable distance east of the lines. Forty five hostile machines were brought down by our airmen. Of these seven were brought down in one fight by one of our squadrons. In addition one hostile airplane was shot down by our anti-aircraft guns. One hostile balloon was destroyed. Sixteen of our machines are missing."

BREWING MUST STOP SOON IS THE ORDER

Use of Foodstuffs in Beer Prohibited After Oct. 1st By Presidential Order.

Washington, Sept. 17.—Use of any foodstuffs except barley malt and hops in the brewing of beer and near beers after next October 1, is prohibited by a proclamation signed today by President Wilson. The president previously had ordered the brewing of all beer stopped next December 1.

The proclamation signed today was not made public nor did the food administration issue any statement explaining the condition which had caused it. It is recommended the action of the president. It was understood however, that the purpose was to conserve stocks of corn and rice which in recent years have been largely substituted for barley in brewing. In announcing the new order food administration officials said today that even after the breweries are shutdown December 1 they will have on hand in their vats sufficient stocks of beer to last from two to six months. The date of this will not be prohibited.

SOLDIERS DIE IN MISSOURI R. WRECK

25 Killed When Passenger and Freight Trains Collide

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 17.—Twenty-five soldiers were killed and between 50 and 60 more were injured tonight when a freight train and a troop train crashed together in a head-on collision, one mile east of Marshall, Mo.

Bodies of between 15 and 20 soldiers were recovered, but several others were buried beneath the wreckage and will be impossible to reach them before the wrecking crew has cleared the tracks. The injured were placed aboard a relief train from Springfield and rushed to hospitals here. A wrecking crew arrived on the scene about midnight and it was thought that the bodies could be reached early in the morning. There appeared to be seven or eight of the bodies pinned beneath the wreckage.

Strict Censorship.

All bodies recovered were brought to Springfield. There was little confusion at the scene of the wreck. Within a few minutes after it occurred a guard of soldiers had been thrown around the tracks and the soldiers were at work removing bodies and giving first aid to their wounded comrades. Marshall physicians were called in to assist in caring for the wounded. After the first half hour no one else was allowed to approach the wreck. The names of the killed and injured were not available tonight, a strict censorship being placed on all information as to the wreck by the army officers on board the train. No information as to the rate of the train crew was available nor would railroad officials comment as to the probable cause for the collision.

Confusion In Orders.

It was stated here tonight the engineers of the troop train was killed and the fireman badly injured. No statement is made regarding engineers of the freight.

The wreck occurred a short distance out of town in fairly open country, the point of collision being on a ten foot hill. It is thought a misunderstanding of orders was the cause of the accident.

The trains collided head-on the engine of the troop train being badly damaged. The baggage car of the troop train was entirely demolished and the first passenger car was thrown forward until one end rested on the tender of the engine. It was from the wreck of this car that the bodies were taken.

The first coach contained troops from Colorado, and Minnesota with a few from Missouri. In the second coach were troops from West Virginia, Iowa, Illinois and Nebraska.

Now posts have been established by us northeast of Neuve Chapelle and in the neighborhood of Ploegstret. East of Vierstraat a German raiding party was repulsed.

A German post west of Ladene was captured. New posts were established northeast of Neuve Chapelle and in the neighborhood of Ploegstret.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

While the Serbs and their French allies are wrestling from the Bulgars some of the strongest positions they have held in Macedonia for the past two years Marshal Foch's forces are nibbling successfully at the German lines on the western front in the face of more determined resistance.

The near east furnished the most successful news of the day however. The offensive which was launched there seems not only the most successful but the most pretentious in many months. It appears probable that a further advance by the Franco-Serbian troops will necessitate the recall of the Bulgarian divisions which have been loaned to Emperor William to bolster the resistance in France and Flanders. An official Serbian report declared he reconstituted army of the battered, but not beaten little kingdom has taken not only 3,000 prisoners but an important number of cannon.

The Bulgarians admit having retired. There is nothing to indicate however, that the advance of the Serbs and French has been definitely held up. The lull in the fighting in the west is regarded by military critics as merely the prelude to further heavy blows at the foe by the Americans, British and French armies. The British advanced their lines slightly at several points. They are making steady progress in the invasion of the Somme. A difficult task even under most favorable conditions.

General Petain's veterans are forging ahead slowly but surely in their grim and desperate struggle for the St. Gobain forest which the Germans have been ordered to hold at all costs. Not only is the position a natural stronghold but the forests have fortified it in every way they could devise. Notwithstanding the difficulty of their task however, the French are moving on, taking prisoners as they go. On the American front the past 24 hours have been the quietest since General Pershing's command launched its irresistible drive against the St. Mihiel salient. There are indications that the Germans intend to retire behind the Hindenburg line in this sector. They are burning villages along the Moselle and in other sections. This procedure usually is a preliminary to a retreat.

Another victory has been recorded for the American, British and French on the newly constituted eastern front. Detachments of the allies have routed Bolshevik forces in the vicinity of Archangel and it is reported many of the red guard officers went over to the allies when their men fled in panic.

WAR TROPHIES EXHIBIT MOVED FROM CHICAGO

There will be exhibitions in Charles City, Le Mars, Fort Dodge, Waterloo, Dubuque, Clinton, Davenport, Iowa City, Des Moines and Burlington. The tour will end in the last city Sept. 29, and later will be resumed in Illinois.

The second train which also departed tonight will tour Wisconsin and Indiana. It is due in Clinton Junction, Wis., Thursday morning. Forty-six towns and cities will be visited on the Wisconsin trip, including Madison, Marinette, Green Bay and Milwaukee. On the last city it is due Sept. 26. In each town the train will stop for one or two hours. The shows will be free to the public.

RAILROAD MEN PLACED IN DEFERRED CLASS

Deemed Essential—Rule Applies To Shipworkers

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—All railroad employes in the classes declared by the railroad administration essential to the proper operations, were instructed today by Director General McAdoo to claim deferred draft classification as a patriotic duty and to furnish the district boards with the necessary information in their answers to the questionnaires to show the basis for such classification.

Explaining the reasons for asking the exemptions Mr. McAdoo declared there is no surplus whatever of employes for running the railroads and there is no surplus of labor from which new employes can be drawn to replace those men who may be taken for the military service.

For this reason the drafting of "any competent railroad employee" from an "indispensable branch of the railroad service" by many draft boards, would "in the aggregate constitute a cumulative and far reaching injury for which the government took possession of control of the railroads.

CAMPAIGN EXPENSES TO BE INVESTIGATED

SENATE PROPOSES INQUIRY RECENT PRIMARY COSTS

Proposal Directed Especially Toward Michigan Where Mr. Newberry Has Expense Account of $176,000—Senator Lodge Asks Any Inquiry Made Shall Be Widespread and Not Confined to Any One State.

Washington, Sept. 17.—Investigation begun by the department of justice into expenditures of funds in recent senatorial and congressional campaigns in a number of states may be followed by inquiries by the senate election committee into campaign expenses for nomination for the senate.

A resolution authorizing the committee to inquire into expenditures in the recent primary in Michigan in which Truman M. Newberry received the Republican nomination for senator and in other states where large expenditures appear unwarranted was introduced in the senate today by Senator Pomerene of Ohio, Democrat.

The resolution was referred to the elections committee after some discussion during which Senator Townsend of Michigan, Republican, declared its introduction to be in furtherance of political schemes that originated in the white house and that President Wilson asked Henry Ford to accept the Democratic nomination for senator.

While the senate was discussing the resolution it became known that the department of justice had begun an investigation into campaign expenditures in New York, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, West Virginia and other states. The progress of this investigation or the time it was inaugurated were not made known.

Lodge Wants No Favoritism.
In offering his resolution Senator Pomerene filed a copy of the expense account of Mr. Newberry in his campaign which showed total contributions of $178,556 and a total expenditure of $176,558. Opinion regarding the senate authority to conduct such an investigation before a candidate was elected to office was divided. Senator Pomerene declared there was no question as to the senate's authority but Senator Lodge and other Republican leaders said they did not think the senate had such power. If the investigation is to be made however, Senator Lodge urged that it be sweeping and apply to all states. Denial that politics prompted the resolution was made by Senator Pomerene while Senator Kenyon, Republican of Iowa declared that if congress permits these enormous expenditures to go unnoticed a poor man will soon be unable to be elected to the senate.

"The Liberty Bond is the only investment in the United States of which it may be truthfully said that its market value MUST inevitably increase and that its real value cannot possibly decline."

"A man need not be very intelligent to realize that the best investment in the world is a FIRST MORTGAGE ON THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, and every Liberty bond that you buy is a first mortgage on this country."

"It is a first mortgage on every railroad, and it comes ahead of the railroad bonds. It is a first mortgage on the probably un-mortgaged house in which John D. Rockefeller lives. For the government would sell that house at auction before it would fail in payment of bond interest or principle."

"The bond that you are going to buy is a mortgage on every foot of ground in the country, on every man's labor. It is a first mortgage on the press on which this newspaper is printed."

Liberia, the latest country to secure a war loan from the United States, is a Negro republic on the west coast of Africa with a population of between one and two million. It declared war on Germany, August 4, 1917. Relations had been broken previously but the war decision permitted the intervention of many German merchants and others who had been accused of unneutral activities.

In lumber mills and camps in the northwest it is said that the old time custom of beginning and ceasing work with whistle has been abolished. Instead the men go to work each morning when the American flag is raised and they cease work in the evening as the emblem is lowered. It is a fine custom and one which might well be adopted by workmen in every part of the country, so long as the war lasts and today all but the aged, the invalids and the children should be enrolled as workers.

THE FIRE MENACE.

What Jacksonville is going to do about its fire department is a vital question for solution. Twelve men make up a desirable number for the department and just now there are four men, including the chief, to handle all the equipment and to fight the fires which may break out in Jacksonville. The situation isn't as bad now as it will be in a few weeks later when colder weather comes. The fire danger is greater in the winter and fire is more difficult to combat. The commissioner of public health and safety has declared that he cannot keep men employed in the department simply because most men decline to work and accept approved bills instead of pay checks. This isn't a question for settlement next winter or spring, but now. Property holders just as a matter of mere self protection should do something in their own behalf.

DIRECTLY INTERESTED IN THE WAR.

The next call for army service will take sixty men from Morgan county. That will mean something more than 1,200 of our citizens actually engaged in the army service, which means too that there are few families in the county not now in one way or another directly connected with the war's activities. That fact gives one reason for the belief that it will be a comparatively easy matter to float the county quota of the coming Liberty loan.

Every one has a direct personal interest in the war, is informed about the meaning of the conflict and knows full well that every dollar invested in Liberty bonds is just another bit of strength to use against the Hun and to bring the war to a victorious close. Then another reason for certainty that the bonds will be easily floated is the knowledge that the investment offered is the safest and best that the business man can devise.

THE HISTORIC CAPITOL.

The National Capitol, where world history is now being made will have a birthday today. One hundred and twenty five years ago, on Sept. 18, 1793, the cornerstone was laid for the imposing pile that now dominates the whole City of Washington with its simple grandeur. President Washington officiated at the ceremony and many of the dignitaries of the young nation were in attendance.

The work of construction on the capitol proceeded very slowly. For many years after the cornerstone was laid there was little to suggest to the imagination a picture of the colossal pile, the first sight of which today fills every American visitor with awe and with pride.

A number of different architects superintended the early work of construction. Included among them were Stephen Hallet, a Frenchman; John Hoban, an Irishman; George Hadfield, an Englishman, and William Thornton, who hailed from the West Indies. The real "father of the Capitol" was Benjamin Henry Latrobe, an English architect, whose services were employed by the government in 1803.

FAREWELL TO THE PLEASURE CAR.

An old gray horse attached to a dilapidated carriage attracted a great deal of attention in front of a Chicago hotel last Sunday. It was gasless day and the old equipage was in use to transport passengers between the hotel and the railroad stations. Passengers who used the ancient vehicle smiled as they entered it and the onlookers applauded. That incident but gave an advance picture of what the people are coming to if conditions in France and England are duplicated here, and the promise is that they will be.

In those countries now pleasure cars are all gone and Stanley Field, Red Cross director, declares that a few months from now American pleasure cars will all be on duty at the war front or used for the transportation of supplies at home. It will be a condition strangely in contrast with the present, but the people will willingly and gladly make this sacrifice and "old Dobbin" will again come into his own.

COLLEGES BEGIN EVENTFUL YEAR.

Illinois college and Illinois

Woman's college begin the work of the year today and complete the group of the Jacksonville educational institutions. The opening of the schools and colleges here each fall means a great deal both to the educational and business life of Jacksonville. These institutions have a very important part in the affairs of this community. This year the opening of the institutions means more even than in other years, for the people are understanding that educational work is rather something that the war should intensify than lessen. It is believed when the records are complete that more than the usual number of students will be shown in response to the urgent campaign the government has waged requesting young men and young women to continue in their college work.

At Illinois college special stress will be laid upon the military and the institution on the hill will open today in a new form, which those associated with the management in years gone by would never have thought possible. The opening of the college today is undoubtedly one of the most important dates in its long and notable history.

ANSWER TO AUSTRIA IS UNEQUIVOCAL.

President Wilson's note in answer to Austria's peace suggestion was so simple and direct that even a Russian illiterate could understand it. Some diplomatic notes are couched in such ornate verbose language that one has to study them to arrive at the full meaning. There is nothing of that kind in his reply of President Wilson and he tells Austria and German "what's what" in about two sentences.

Austria is given to understand that there will be no talk about peace until Germany has given unmistakable indication of a willingness to accept the principles the president has already laid down and a subscription to those principles would mean disarmament, the restoration of Alsace-Lorraine and the several other "items" for which the allies are fighting.

The world of diplomacy will be the better off if the kind of note that President Wilson has just used becomes a universal type. Simple, direct, unequivocal language is the best and makes double dealing and misunderstanding less possible.

Self Denial.

I do without a lot of things, because I wish to can such kings as Carl and old Red Bill; as Hoover says, "That man is wise and loyal who'll economize, and do it with a will." It's been a grievous hurt to me that I can't sail across the sea and slay my share of Huns; it's made me shed the tears of brine that I can't reach the battle line, all loaded down with duty. When first I suffered from this smart, there was rebellion in my heart, and I remarked, "By James, it's tough when one who's strong and bold is said to be far too fat and old to play these martial games." But now I see that one can aid who does not wield a shining blade, or ply a sawed-off gun, and every time I save some scads I'm backing up our fighting lads, and helping scotch the Hun. I'm wearing last year's mohair suit, and hope by this to queer a Tuet, and make old Bill despond; the coin I'd spend for raiment gay, for shirts and neckties recherche will buy another bond. And every bond for which I pay brings nearer still the happy day when triumph will be ours; when our brave boys will homeward come, and we shall make the old town hum, and load them down with flowers.

RABJOHNS &amp; REID TO HAVE ADDED ROOM

Building Formerly Occupied by Weber's Grocery Will be Connected With Their East Side Store—More Display and Floor Space.

Announcement has just been made that the firm of Rabjohns & Reid has leased the Hooker hall room on East State street, occupied for many years by the Weber grocery. This store room is now being directly connected with the main room of the Rabjohns & Reid establishment. No new lines of stock are to be carried but the additional floor and display space will make possible a rearrangement of stocks. The firm has been carrying a much larger line of goods than could be displayed in the present quarters and the added space will make it possible to place on view many goods now in cases and packages.

The new store room will also provide an East State street entrance to this firmly established dry goods store. The connection between the two store rooms will be such that the same cash and bundle carrier system will operate in both. Since the Rabjohns & Reid firm succeeded to the ownership of the Harmon dry goods store the business has grown and developed in a very surprising way and the acquisition of the new display and sales space which the East State street room will provide is indicative of the prosperity and progress of the firm. For the present the East State street room will be devoted particularly to lines of hosiery, underwear and bedding.

Patrons of the store will find the new room a great convenience and an added attraction to the establishment.

MAJESTIC ELIMINATES FIVE CENT PICTURES

Manager Luttrell Adopts New Plan at Popular Picture House Has Held Up Large Clientele by Close Study of Wants of Patrons.

Manager G. M. Luttrell of the Majestic theatre has eliminated the five cent day at his theatre. For a number of years Mr. Luttrell in the face of increased cost of operation has maintained one five cent day each week.

Mr. Luttrell has been engaged in the amusement business for many years. His first venture was in legitimate attractions as manager of the Grand Opera house which he conducted with success. That was before the day of moving pictures, tho they were being shown by a number of theatrical attractions brought to the country they had not become of such importance that the theatres were being constructed for their exhibition.

After a period of several years during which Mr. Luttrell engaged in other business he again embarked in the amusement business by the purchase of the Majestic theatre. He immediately entered into a study of its possibilities and its needs and today is regarded as one of the best posted picture men in the country.

He keeps in close touch with the makers of high class films and also feels the pulse of the picture going public and the result is a well pleased and large clientele.

Under the management of Mr. Luttrell the Majestic has become one of the most popular and most prosperous picture theatres in this section of the country. A few years ago Prof. Frank Leeder who has been playing for the theatre for a number of years became associated with Mr. Luttrell in the management of the house. His knowledge of the business has been of great help in building up the present excellent business.

Beginning Thursday, which has been the Majestic's five cent day the new plan will be inaugurated with a Selexart picture. The story deals with the gold fields of Alaska and the cast which is one of the best even seen in a screen production is headed by Clara Williams who takes the part of Carmen in the picture which is entitled Carmen of the Klondike.

In the supporting company is Hereschel Williams, Edw. Coxen and Joseph J. Dowling. All are well known screen favorites and Mr. Dowling was for many years a star on the speaking stage. He played in Jacksonville at the old Strawn opera house and at the present Grand when it was first opened. In recent years he has become known as one of the best portrayers of old men characters on either the stage or screen.

In addition to carrying a pretty love story Carmen of the Klondike is filled with thrilling and tense situations. The photography is excellent and the scenes taken in Alaska are true to life and show conditions in that wild land in the early days of the gold rush.

Mrs. O. E. Tandy who is attending the National Association of Rebekah assemblies in St. Louis was honored by being elected to the office of treasurer of the organization. Mrs. Tandy has been grand marshal of the national body for the past two years. This is an appointive office but she has made many friends and seems to be in line for still greater honors in the national body.

Tho 55 years of age, General Hardin carried his years well and has been practicing law in Chicago for many years. While in the city he visited the grave of his father in Jacksonville cemetery.

The millinery display advertised by L. C. and R. E. Henry, opera house milliners, was strictly on time yesterday and attracted large numbers of ladies and even some gentlemen for the latter seem to enjoy seeing beautiful creations as much as their sisters. This house has a fair of selecting goods in a manner that suits this market and it is exacting and wants the best. The trimmers employed are ladies who fully understand their business and so there can be but one result and that is success. ## HELPING ON FARMS

A great many men from Jacksonville State hospital are now employed temporarily on Morgan county farms. There are several "gangs" engaged in filling silos and in other cases are cutting corn. This is being done in addition to taking care of the general farm work for the state hospital. Some weeks ago the hospital put up 80 or 90 tons of hay as its share in the partnership plan and silos at the hospital and at the school for the deaf have been filled. More than the usual acreage of potatoes, sweet corn, tomatoes and other vegetables have been raised this year and a large supply of vegetables stored and canned for winter use. As a result of the farm work the men are doing the hospital will secure a large amount of corn and other grain as the services of the men are paid for in the grain furnished the hospital.

RECEPTION GIVEN FOR DR. C. E. BLACK

Friends Planned Splendid Demonstration in His Honor—Escorted to Wabash Train.

The impromptu reception given last night in honor of Dr. Carl E. Black at the Congregational church gave an opportunity for a great number of his friends to tell him goodbye on the eve of his departure for an important mission abroad. The plan for this public reception was inaugurated by the Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church and was entered into heartily by a great many people. The several hundred persons who entered the reception room of the church were met by Miss Maria Fairbank of the Aid society and other members of the church. Without formality all comers greeted Dr. and Mrs. Black and an hour was spent in a delightful social way.

Members of the board of education were present as were many physicians and clergymen, together with representatives of the various organizations with which Dr. Black is identified. He has been associated so intimately with the educational and public life of Jacksonville that a general reception in his honor meant an outpouring of people with a variety of interests. The occasion was certainly one which strongly attested the place that Dr. Black holds in the community. The canteen girls with songs added to the pleasure of the evening.

A further testimonial of the good opinion and friendship of the people was seen in the parade which moved from Congregational church to the Wabash station. Several hundred men and women formed this patriotic escort and still others were gathered on the station platform, so that it was indeed a very notable going away party that Dr. Black's friends organized. The parade was under the command of Capt. J. M. Swales as marshal and the line of march included:

Standard bearer—Howard W. Namaker.

Jacksonville drum corps.

Members Co. C under command of Capt. Vickery. Lieutenants James and Farrell.

Canteen girls.

Citizens.

The train was more than a half hour late and the time was partially spent in the singing of patriotic songs. The fact that Dr. Black has served as a member of the Morgan county local board since its beginning and has been so actively associated with patriotic work in Morgan county made this program of music timely. Altogether it was an event which will be remembered with interest and pleasure.

FINE WORK

Gates Strawn has received a letter from nieces in Denver relating an incident regarding a sweater knitted by the ladies that evidences remarkable skill. They are the daughters of William Strawn, eldest son of the late Jacob Strawn.

"We have had a busy summer. Have worked in the Red Cross cutting room, cutting and arranging gauze and cotton for surgical dressings, two days each week since the first of March and knitted between times. Harriet and I were among the number asked to knit sample socks to send out to other towns for people to copy. The past two weeks have been knitting a blue sweater and cap for Strawn (Grace's son). He enlisted in the navy in June, and is in the camp at Goat Island, San Francisco. When Strawn went away he took the sweater we knitted for him last winter. The inspecting official made him send the sweater home, because the officer said it was not hand work. So we had a certificate from the knitting department of the Denver Red Cross stating they knew us personally and that the sweater was hand knitted, to send with the sweater. Suppose we ought to feel complimented, but it was exasperating when Strawn needed the sweater."

HOW WE CAME TO FRANCE.

The following lines were written by Richard N. Todd, Co. A, 33d Engineers, A. E. F., and were published in a city paper. The soldier writer is a nephew of Mrs. W. D. Mathers of this city.

I. List, you millionaires who came here— Came to France in pre-war times— You may talk about your travels, How you journeyed to these climes.

II. But did you have a naval escort? Alongside you day and night? Did you have Destroyers meet you Days before land hope in sight?

III. You never took your turn at lookout, Watched for periscope or mine; Never saw the guarding air craft O'er the transports all in line.

IV. We laid on deck with clothes on You slept down in state rooms Grand; We'd a life belt for a pillow And a rifle close at hand.

V. You with retinue of servants And your friends made quite a throng, But you came not, as our envoy, About forty thousand strong.

VI. You may boast of those who met you— Foreign swells and potentates— Women clothed in black waved welcome When we landed from the States.

VII. Little children dressed in mourning Grasped our hands as we passed thru The streets of a French city, Did they do the same to you

VIII. From varnished cars you saw the country Tho you traveled thru in state; Ours were stock cars, on them painted: "Hommes Forty. Chevan Eight."

IX. You staid home and made more millions: We worked for one buck a day. When we speak of our experience Will you have a word to say?

X. We came here when duty called us

Came to pay a debt long due; Tho we roughed it we would not trade Our experiences with you. —Richard N. Todd, Co. A, 33rd Engineers A. E. F., P. O. 708

ATTENTION! Sick Women

To do your duty during these trying times your health should be your first consideration. These two women tell how they found health.

Hellam, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and a displacement. I felt all run down and was very weak. I had been treated by a physician without results, so decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and felt better right away. I am keeping house since last April and doing all my housework, where before I was unable to do any work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly the best medicine a woman can take when in this condition. I give you permission to publish this letter."—Mrs. E. R. CRUMBLING, R. No. 1, Hellam, Pa.

FILLS STOMACH WITH NEW ENERGY

Weak, Worn Out, Gassy, Sour Stomach, Revived and Made to Enjoy Food with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets

Most of us eat three times a day and often forget that each meal should be disposed of in the stomach to make room for the next. The failure of the stomach to do this is called indigestion or dyspepsia, with its sour risings, gas, rumblings, pain, depression and the feeling of stuffiness when breathing is difficult.

The most effective remedy and the most reliable one, because you can get it at any drug store in the United States or Canada, is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, at 50 cents a box. Instead of depriving yourself of food or going on a starvation diet simply keep on as you have and let these tablets straighten out your stomach, digest the food and keep you in the fight.

FARLEY CLOSES LONG LIFE

CHURCH DIGNITARY FROM PNEUMONIA

John M. Farley, archbishop of New York, died at his home here tonight. The archbishop had been suffering from pneumonia for several days.

Archbishop Farley, who was born in 1842, was a member of the Sacred College, and was considered by the Catholic world a great tribute to the church in America. He was imbued with American ideals. For more than a quarter of a century North America had been represented in the Sacred College by only one cardinal, the venerable Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore.

An Associated Press despatch from Rome which brought the first announcement of the Pope's nomination of Mr. Farley for the cardinalate was received in New York not only by the Catholic population but by the city at large with great enthusiasm. In his years of service in the metropolitan see Archbishop Farley had become beloved by a host of friends of every creed. When he sailed for Rome to have the red hat conferred upon him at a formal consistory, twenty-five thousand men, women and children lined the cross-town thoroughfare from St. Patrick's Cathedral on Fifth avenue to the waterfront. Papal flags were everywhere in evidence, flying even from the top-mast of the steamer on which he sailed.

Great Demonstration

An even greater demonstration—one of the greatest any ecclesiastical individual ever received in this country—was accorded the new Prince of the Church when he returned to New York on January 17, 1912. Thousands upon thousands greeted him when he landed at the Battery. In an open carriage he joined the great procession to St. Patrick's, and saw the city decked in papal colors as never before. The cathedral had been strung with ribbons of electric lights which were illuminated every night for ten nights after his return.

He was born April 20, 1842, at Newton Hamilton, County Armagh, Ireland, the son of Philip and Catherine (Murphy) Farley. His father was an inn-keeper. Both parents died when the boy was only seven years old, and he was left largely to make his own way. He succeeded in getting a fair education at St. Marcan's, a college in the neighborhood of his home, and he proved to be not only a brilliant student but a popular one, for he was known as the comedian of his class and a peacemaker among his fellows.

Through the auspices of an uncle, he came to New York and continued his education at St. John's College, Fordham, and at St. Joseph's Seminary at Troy, N. Y. Four more years he spent at the American college in Rome, Italy, and was ordained as a priest there, June 11, 1870.

His First Work

Returning to this country, he spent the first two years after his ordination as assistant rector of St. Peter's, at New Brighton, Staten Island (in New York Harbor). The vigor and ability he displayed in this, his first work, attracted the attention of Cardinal Archbishop McCloskey and he engaged him as his secretary. The young Father Farley held this post for twelve years, almost up to the time of the cardinal's death. This secretarial intimacy with the first American to be elevated to the cardinalate had a great influence on Father Farley. He imbibed much of the gentleness of spirit and plain habits of life which were characteristic of his superior, and after Cardinal McCloskey's death he eulogized him in a story of his life.

He was not a great preacher or speaker, so far as oratorical ability was concerned, although he had a sweet voice and a strong one, but his sermons and addresses were interesting and convincing. They were consistently leveled at certain things which he considered the greatest current evils—divorce, immoral theatricals, Sabbath desecration, and socialism.

It was rather as a manager of men and money that the Cardinal Archbishop ranked highest. He displayed great vigor in carrying out his plans for the founding of Catholic institutions, and in fostering those already established. Under his administration six or seven new churches were built in the New York diocese every year, home missions were extended, and phenomenal gains made in donations for all church purposes. When he went to Rome, as he did every other year, he carried with him an offering of Peter's pence that has been said to be larger than from any other diocese in the world.

BANKERS MEET SOON IN CHICAGO

War Time Business Conditions Give More Than Usual Interest to Sessions of the American Association.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Business methods in the United States are rapidly undergoing changes owing to the necessities and conditions growing out of the war. American banking upon which the business man relies for the proper handling of the lifeblood of business—credit, is going thru a period of rapid evolution that is of vital importance to everyone. Because of these developments, the Forty Fourth Annual Convention of the American Bankers' Association here next week will be one of the most important in our banking and business history as some of the ablest men available will discuss these changes with relation to their fundamental soundness in principle in a way that will be helpful to all.

Like patriotic business men, the leading bankers of the country are earnestly supporting the Government in this war crisis and are eager to avert any change that subsequently might prove to be wrong, and might weaken the credit structure. Hence in the discussions, care has been taken to invite men as speakers who can offer constructive suggestions both to the Government and to business men generally.

Benefits Certain

An exchange of ideas between bankers and business men on an occasion like the convention next week is certain to be beneficial to all and it is for this reason that an unusual effort is being made to bring about a large attendance during the American Bankers' Association convention, special sessions from the middle west. This is to be a "War Convention" and the sessions will be given over largely to discussion of the all-absorbing topics of the times.

The General program for the week is like that of former conventions. Monday morning, September 23. Annual meeting of the Association and its various Sections. Monday afternoon September 23. Committee meetings of the Executive Council. On Tuesday and Wednesday, September 24 and 25 will occur general meetings of the Trust Company, Savings Bank, Clearing House, State Secretaries, National Bank and State Bank Sections.

There will be a joint meeting of the National Bank Savings Bank and Trust Company Sections on Tuesday evening. This will open up a general discussion of the efficiency of the Federal Reserve System and likely will prove to be one of the most important sessions of the convention, as it is planned to have this subject discussed from several angles. This meeting will take place in the Gold Room of the Congress Hotel. E. D. Hulbert, President of the Merchants Loan and Trust Company of Chicago, will discuss the Federal Reserve system from the general viewpoint, while the viewpoint of a member bank will be presented by a prominent banker whose name cannot yet be announced. Then will come the viewpoint of the eligible but non-member banker led by M. J. Dowling, vice president of the Minnesota Bankers' Association. The viewpoint of the non-eligible banker will be presented by Robert D. Keen, President of the Merchants Bank of Passaic, N. J., who is widely known as an authority on banking subjects.

Thursday morning Sept. 26, marks the opening of the General Convention with a concert by one of Chicago's famous bands. The annual address and response to addresses of welcome will be made by President C. H. Hinson. Thursday afternoon will be given over to addresses as will Friday.

Prominent Men to Appear

Among the prominent speakers who will address the convention are Gov. Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois. Harry A. Wheeler, president Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Chicago. Illinois, will speak on "The Merchant Marine and the Railroads." W. H. Vandervoort of the Root & Vandervoort Engineering Company and the R. V. Wagner Ordnance Company, East Moline, Ill. on "Relations Between Employer and Employee." The Rt. Rev. Charles David Williams.

Tentative promises to address the convention have been received from Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, Charles M. Schwab, Director General of Emergency Fleet Corporation, Philadelphia, Otto H. Kahn of New York City, Senator George E. Chamberlain, Chairman Committee on Military Affairs, United States Senate, Senator Chamberlain will speak on "Universal Military Training." A promise to address the convention has been received from the Earl of Reading provided he returns from England in time.

The bankers of Chicago do not wish to eliminate entirely the entertainment features and have planned for an automobile trip thru the parks and boulevards of Chicago for Monday afternoon. There will be theatre entertainments on Wednesday and Friday evening, a luncheon for the ladies at the South Shore Country Club on Thursday afternoon, and arrangements are about perfected to have their banker guests visit the Great Lakes Naval Station on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 28 where at 10:30 o'clock, the Commandant has arranged a special Review by the boys in training there. The trip to the Great Lakes will be by special train.

The various local committees of the entertaining city are holding meetings and are busily engaged to the end that the forty-fourth annual convention of the American Bankers' Association will be the most successful in the history of the organization. Chicago bankers are famous as hosts and every one attending the convention is assured an entertaining and instructive time.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Greatly concerned over the cotton strike, Premier Lloyd George tonight from his sick bed issued an appeal to the strikers to return to work and leave the decision in the matters under dispute to the government after an inquiry by a special tribunal to be immediately appointed.

The premier bases his appeal on the fact that the strike will seriously interfere with the production of war material.

HENNESSEY GUILTY ON FIVE COUNTS

This Finding of Jury in Case of Defendant Charged With Violating The Local Option Law.

The trial of Thomas Hennessey, charged with violating the local option law, came to a close Tuesday night when the jury returned a verdict finding the defendant guilty on all of the five counts alleged in the indictment. So far as learned this is the most sweeping conviction yet made on any liquor case, as it is seldom that a jury brings in a verdict of guilty on more than two counts.

Monday afternoon and all day Tuesday the trial proceeded and the case was not given to the jury until 4:30 Tuesday afternoon, when Judge Thomson gave his instruction. State's Attorney Robinson had C. W. Middlekauff, assistant attorney general of Illinois, associated with him in the prosecution of the case and the defendant was represented by J. Marshall Miller and W. W. Wright. The jury which heard (the evidence included S. M. Crum, Paul Breckon, Harry Butcher, Edward Collins, W. L. Leach, G. E. Petefish, John Gibbs, J. O. Hayes, W. F. Connell, Earl Butcher, W. E. George McSherry, who is charged with violating the local option law, entered plea of guilty on one count in the county court Tuesday and he was ordered to pay a fine of $100 and costs, and capias for the fine is to issue at the suggestion of the state's attorney.

Why Run-down Pale Exhausted Women Should Take Iron

"There can be no beautiful, healthy, ray-checked, steady nerve women without iron. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the roses go from their cheeks—their charm and attractiveness depart. I always insist that my patients take organic iron—Nuxated Iron—not metallic iron which often corrodes the stomach and does more harm than good. Nuxated Iron is easily assimilated, does not blacken nor injure the teeth nor upset the stomach. It will increase the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, irritable, careworn, haggard women in two or three weeks in many cases. I have used it in my own practice with most surprising results."—Ferdinand King, M.D., well known New York Physician and medical author. (Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded—On sale at all good druggists.)

Run-Down People

Vinol is What You Need

Weak, run-down nervous men and women need Vinol because it contains the most famous reconstructive tonics in an agreeable and easily digested form:—Beef and Cod Liver Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates and Glycerophosphates.

We guarantee there is no tonic equal to Vinol.

Detroit, Mich. "I got into a weak, run-down condition, no appetite, tired all the time and headaches—but had to keep going and do my housework. I read about Vinol and tried it—within two weeks I commenced to improve, and now have a splendid appetite and feel stronger and better in every way."—Mrs. John P. Watson.

Texas, Texas. "I keep house and I was weak, run-down and nervous, back ached a good deal of the time, so it was hard to take care of my children and do my work—Vinol has restored my strength, and my nervousness has gone, so I can do my work as well as ever. Every run-down woman should take Vinol."—Mrs. Emma Britt.

For all run-down, nervous, anemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol.

WILKINSON DIES IN WHITE HALL

Way in Greene County City—
Dr. Foreman Receives War
Trophies from Son Lieut. H. W.
Foreman—White Hall News
Notes.

White Hall, Sept. 17.—The of Mrs. J. J. Wilkinson occurred at the family home on street Sunday evening at o'clock. Her age was almost 75 years, and her entire life had been spent in Greene county.
Her husband survives, also three children by her former husband.
The following: Charles and Walter, of White Hall, and W. Clyde Springate, of Oaklawn, Wis. Clyde is superintendent of the Kane schools and now head of a new business college in the Wisconsin city. Funeral services will be held at the home at 2:30 p. m.
Tuesday, the officiating clergyman being Rev. T. N. Marsh of Alton, and the interment will be in the White Hall cemetery. One grandson, Alvin Springate, is with the American forces in France.

Sergeant Harry L. Lyons writes from Camp Mills, N. Y., that he has been seeing all the sights and site of the Empire state while awaiting orders to sail. He met relatives of his mother for the first time, and they showed the sergeant the time of his life.
He adds: "We are well and happy and rearing to go. Every time I look at the ocean it looks larger."

A sword bayonet and a cavalry sword, trophies of war, were received last week by Dr. W. A.
Foreman from his son, Lieut. H.
W. Foreman, member of the famous rainbow division in France.
They were captured from a German soldier. The doctor is daily expecting a letter or explanation Lieut. Foreman was reported killed when a bursting shell killed a number of his comrades, and he has been engaged since in establishing the fact that he still lives, of which the above receipt is additional evidence.

Lieut. Wenke Home from France
John Stout has returned from Oklahoma City, where his brother, Frank Stout, is located.

Lieut. Charles Wenken departed Saturday to report to the war department at Washington, having arrived at home on the Monday previous from France, unharmed and unannounced. Imagine the joy of his mother who was in the midst of writing a letter to her son who has been in France a little more than a year, and to look up from the table and face the soldier boy who had become the pride of her heart.
Wenken went to France as a private with the 68th Field Artillery, and last July was transferred with the Sixth Field Artillery as a private and now being a second lieutenant. He was the central figure of the public exercises in Whiteside Park on registration day last Thursday, delivering a speech that was about the most impressive or rather instructive expositions of the war that has come to our people and at the same time the address was made by him as his first effort at public speaking.

The following day he addressed the pupils of the grades of the public school at the request of his sister, Miss Nellie Wenken, one of the teachers.

May Form County Band.
Frank L. Grant, who was a member of the band of Troop H, Sixth Cavalry, R. A., during the Spanish-American war, recognizes the local band emergency occasioned by the calling of members of Greene county bands to the colors, and has called a meeting of representative band men of Roodhouse, Greenfield and Carrollton to consider the formation of a county band to meet the demands of receptions, public demonstrations and the like that are continually arising on account of the war. He is meeting with considerable encouragement already.

Miss Alice Potts left this week for an extended trip to Chicago.
An inch and a half of rain has fallen in the past 36 hours, and the C. & A. has ordered work on the new water tank at White Hall discontinued. The two facts may have no relation, but the railroad people depend on White Hall only when their limited supplies at other points succumb to droughts.

The Greene county republican central committee had a meeting set at Carrollton today for the purpose of organizing and naming a county ticket, but rain caused the meeting to be deferred until later in the week.

W. D. Davis has moved his family here from Jacksonville, and they are nicely located in the Starkey residence on West Bridgeport street, recently vacated by Frank Zorenberg.

The White Hall basket ball team will play at Manchester next Saturday. Manchester lost to White Hall in a game here last Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Walton has shipped household goods and left for Rock Island, out of where her husband has a run as a passenger flagman on the Burlington.

T. J. Grant accompanied his daughter, Mrs. Hazel McKee, as far as Salina, Kans., last week, she being on her way to join her husband at Rupert, Idaho. Mr.
Grant remained at Salina for a few days with his mother, who is 55 years of age, and will return to White Hall this week to take further steps with reference to acquiring additional ground for Whiteside Park, on which it is proposed to erect a library building.

Mr. and Mrs. John Castleberry are here from Chicago on a visit.

McAllen, Texas Visiting Relatives—Concord News Notes.

Concord, Sept. 17.—Mr. and Mrs. George Wooff of McAllen, Texas, arrived here on the night train from the south Thursday night for a visit with J. W. Whitor, E. Whorton, Mrs. Ethelyn Plank and other friends. They have many interesting facts to relate concerning their new home.
They do not know when winter comes, the weather is so mild.
George looks like the climate has been good to him. They both enjoy living where the snow don't get deep enough so you can notice it. It is about nine months since they went to Texas.
Their many friends are delighted to see them.

A party composed of Henry Aufdenkamp, his daughter Della, Miss Flora Neinhiser, and Miss Annie Nergenah, started on train 48, on Friday afternoon for Louisville, Ky. After visiting some of our boys Camp Taylor, Mr. Aufdenkamp and daughter intend to visit his old home in Indiana. During their ab-

Kans. They went out there in company with Mr. and Mrs. C.
E. Drake, in Mr. Drake's Buick car. They made the trip of 601 miles without any mishap, but decided to leave the car with George Drake and return by ting a plenty of rain.

The new electric light plant at the home of August Brockhouse is in running order now, and is certainly a splendid improvement.
The little engine is a "hammer", and will do many other chores besides generating electricity. A water system and some plumbing is next in order. With such conveniences obtainable, why move to town?

J. E. Whorton has had the misfortune to lose three head of yearling steers from eating cockle-

"A CHICKEN IN FRANCE"

An industry is being inaugurated in France to give crippled and incapacitated soldiers a chance to make a living and to help feed the country. The plan is to stock chicken ranches and to place these men in charge. Miss Ella Trabue regent of the D. A. R. in this city, has received a number of badges,
"I Have a Chicken in France", to be worn by those willing to aid in the work. It will only need twenty-five cents to furnish a chicken to help build up the stock.
It is a worthy cause.

CHAPIN

The members of the Red Cross of Bluffs were in Chapin last evening advertising the Red Cross picnic which is to be held in Bluffs Sept. 18th.

Alpha Gimbel is now reported to be improving at the hospital in Jacksonville.

The section men on the east half of the Wabash railroad had the misfortune to have their motor car struck by a Wabash engine. The section men had a few moments before met No. 3, the west bound passenger, but being able to move the car in plenty of time had just put the motor car on the track and started on their journey to work when at a very short curve, 2-1-4 miles east of Chapin they met engine No. 2319, which was hauling five cars westward. Being unable to stop the locomotive struck the motor car and completely demolished its gas engine in the motor car. The pilot on the engine was broken so it had to be removed at Chapin. The section men all regret the loss of their car, which came so handy in going and coming from work.

No one was injured, except one man who got his feet in the motor car and had to change his stockings and shoes.

Bake Without the "Ake"

Leonard Hi-Oven Ranges

There are in all eighteen styles of Leonard Hi-Oven Ranges. Some burn only coal or wood—others burn gas also. All have the convenient elevated oven that takes the "ake" out of bake —and there are many other work saving features.

FOR THAT COLD KITCHEN

A Leonard Hi-Oven Range is a combination cooking range and heating stove. The same fire that does your cooking and baking heats your kitchen also. You can heat your dining room, too, if you wish. Easily holds fire over night—thus no fires to kindle.

REDUCE HI-COST OF LIVING

Let a Leonard Hi-Oven Range help you reduce your living expenses. It requires less fuel than other ranges.
Then, too, one fuel does both your heating and cooking. This means fuel saved—and that's money saved.

FRONT RESIDENT DESCRIBES WAR SCENES

Mrs. Aspasia Hockenull Tells in Interesting Vein of Personal Experiences in England, Praises Bravery and Endurance of English People.

Noting the presence of Mrs. Aspasia Hockenull in the city the writer was at once reminded of a young lady he knew when she visited friends in this city and so their courtesy to the lady's entertainer, Miss Effie Epler, he was permitted to call and renew former acquaintances.

Seldom, if ever, has Jacksonville had a visit from a lady who has seen what Mrs. Hockenull has seen and been through what she has and the writer naturally desired to hear something of it but when he produced his note book she at once protested that she was not here for advertising purposes and bade the offending instrument be put away. However, what she said was of so much interest the Journal man has taken the liberty of producing solely from memory a small part of the things she said for they are so much in order and in the present time, so much in the minds of every one, and so important that the visitor felt the people should know something of them and the only regret is that they cannot all be recorded verbatim instead of from memory.

Mrs. Hockenull has an ancestral tree of which any one might well be proud. Her mother was a native of Greece, a member of a fine family possessing a superior mind. Her father was of genuine Mayflower stock and she has been asked to head in England an organization to aid in the suitable celebration of the 300th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims, an event for which all New England in general and Boston and environment in particular, are getting ready to observe in a fitting manner in 1920.

Spent Some Years in Europe. Mrs. Hockenull has spent some years in Europe and has had rare opportunities to observe important people and events. She has letters from the U. S. ambassador, head of Y. M. C. A. and other eminent persons so that her credentials are sufficient to carry her almost anywhere. She said in part:

Some years ago, before anybody but possibly Lord Roberts and a very few like, outside of Germany, had any thought of war, I visited Hamburg and there met the German emperor several times. Of course it was in a social way and he was very affable in conversation and courteous in manner and little did anyone dream of what he was then plotting against the world.

As we well know, Germany is an arbitrarily governed land and all must bend to the will of the emperor who is looked on as almost a supreme being and he himself is possessed with the idea of being a world conqueror, looking up only to the Creator, and not very much to Him. He thinks he is destined to govern the whole world and only regrets he can't take in some of the starry elements as well.

Berlin a Wonderful City. Berlin is a beautiful, wonderful, well built city but when I recall what I have seen and endured (and here her eyes flashed) I shall never be satisfied till the allied troops march through that place and give it and the people at least a taste of what other cities and people have been compelled to suffer at the hands of that fiendish government.

At the beginning of the war I was in London and at once tried to do my part in the stupendous work undertaken by the British people. Had they only listened to Lord Roberts years ago much might have been accomplished but they didn't and there is no use now to regret the past. Never to my dying day can I forget the pitiable scenes enacted when the Belgian refugees began to arrive. Possibly some came who left little behind but the majority were deserving people who had been ruthlessly plundered of all they had and compelled to submit to untold atrocities. Do some people in the United States have doubts regarding the stories of German brutality? Let me say to you, but a small fraction of the truth has been told or ever can be told. Had they stopped with men it would be bad enough but women, innocent girls and even little children were not free from their fiendish acts. They even went so far as to violate nuns.

English Kind to Belgians. In the early days of the German invasion of Belgium, before they had robbed and destroyed the land, some German officers went to a fine house and demanded accommodations. The lady graciously served them with supper and good beds and in the morning said to them that she hoped they had found satisfactorily. She had two sweet young daughters in their teens and the Germans said they had not had their dessert yet and when asked what it was replied the girls and in spite of the mother's agonizing protests they took the girls from her for base purposes. I have seen women who have been mutilated; soldiers with their tongues cut out or cut to strips; innocent children injured beyond redemption and so much of it that the mind fairly staggers at the thought and yet I have seen but a small portion of it. Many things I cannot tell as I have been under favored circumstances and seen things that must not be divulged.

The English were very kind and generous to the Belgians and did all possible for them. The poor creatures, even in such numbers that London couldn't hold them and they had to be scattered about the country wherever they could be accommodated. The pitiful scenes I witnessed then I can never forget. People in all ranks of life gave up everything. Houses were devoted to the reception of clothing, shoes and everything needed by the poor creatures driven from their homes and they were supplied in the best manner possible.

I am not a suffragette but I will testify to the nobility of the conduct of English women since the outbreak of the war. They have set aside their contest for political privileges and have gone heart and soul into the work of the country to win the war.

Life in London indeed strenuous. I cannot tell it all but enough may be known to give a faint idea of conditions. We never know what might the dreadful monsters of the air will be upon us and we especially dread bright, moonlight nights. Men with bicycles go through the city giving a peculiar whistle and all know what it means and hurry for a place of safety. All the streets are dark and one can realize how dismal must be the great metropolis without illumination.

Terrible Work of Bombs. The bombs do dreadful execution sometimes. I have in mind a whole row of buildings whose windows were all reduced to scraps by the fearful missiles. One day a regular flock of aircraft flew over the city, one leading and the others following like a drove of birds. They had the palace for their objective but were driven off. All about the city is a barge and aerial guns are ready and search lights illuminate the sky and many of the invaders are brought down. I well remember one time I was in a building and heard what I feared was a bomb and mentioned it to a friend who it fell and the result I can hardly describe. Once a piece of one penetrated a house and went through a bed and would have killed any occupant who had been in it.

The allies want more men as fast as we can send them. I am sometimes inclined to think that Germany has lied about her population and has more than she has reported.

Proud To Be An American. Never can I forget the day the first U. S. troops marched thru the streets of London and were reviewed by the king. It was indeed a grand sight and lent heart to the weary people who were somewhat discouraged but never downhearted. The grand old flag looked so dear to me and I was grandly proud to feel and know I was an American. Our country has done a noble work and should push ahead with all vigor. Our government is handling the situation very well and all in power deserve much credit. Of course it is easy enough to look back and see mistakes but we are all human and need toleration.

The bravery and endurance of the English people deserve great praise. Hardly a family has failed to lose one or more members yet one hears no complaints. Mourning is not worn for the black dyes are needed for the army. Food is dealt out in economical ways. My rations were carefully adjusted and I had to be content with them and was proud to be content. I had so much butter; so much sugar and very little of either and when I would be at the home of a friend I might have a part of my rations with me and thus enjoy their hospitality when they couldn't invite me to eat with them. Yet with it all one hears hardly any complaint or murmuring; all are diligently bent on winning the war.

Sometimes it is hard to keep from losing one's faith. I asked an officer once if he had lost faith in God and while he said he had not, I asked him if he or his men ever prayed and he said they did indeed. Before a charge he said he asked them all to kneel and pray and they did so in earnest, remembering home and mother and them with grim determination they went on over the top and did things in earnest. No, I have not lost faith in God and while the war is terrible I feel we are still in the hands of an All wise Being who will order things aright at last. The world can afford to suffer almost anything in order to be rid of the monster, German race. Gladly would they take France, England, Canada and walk victoriously down Pennsylvania avenue in Washington. One consuming desire with them is to bomb New York but they will not have the pleasure.

Annihilation for the Hun. We are taught forgiveness of our enemies but the command ceases when we come to the Hun. I can see no safety in anything but annihilation for him. They have no right to live and should be destroyed root and branch. One who has seen their fiendish atrocities can not talk with moderation of them. They are beyond the pale of civilization and should be exterminated. By that I mean the men in authority; the government and those who are directly responsible for the war.

Naturally I feel glad that an expedition is to be sent to the relief of the Greek patriots. I used to think well of the king and queen whom I know personally but the conduct of the ruler of Greece in this war has been indefensible. He should not have listened to his German wife but to the interest of his country. He will have to suffer for it.

I have little pity for the late empress of Russia. I have known a number of Russian statesmen and ambassadors to that land and they are men of ability but the iron heel of the reigning house has been pitiless. The late emperor was very weak and under the influence of his wife and two female relatives and they were utter retrogrades and devotees of the old school and banished to Siberia all who dared say a word against them. If the czarina has not been killed she deserves it.

With all its horrors the war has its humorous features. The poor people of England who have always worked for low wages suddenly find themselves the recipients of pay to them fabulous and like weak children have little idea of saving their money.

Our recent journey home was quite an experience. I sailed from the harbor on the Steamship, and that is all I can tell you of that. We were all the time required to wear our life belts and sailed with the boats ready to be lowered at a moment's notice. At night the ship was as dark as Egypt and the pilot went by the compass and the course chosen was at all times a zigzag. Of that journey the New York Times said:

"A big British liner which out-fought and sank a submarine a few hundred miles west of the Irish coast on June 2 arrived here yesterday with 176 jubilant passengers."

"Admiralty regulations prevented the skipper and his officers from discussing the incident, but the story was told by travellers who saw the fight. Their narratives had the unofficial approval of the officers and the gun crew."

"The battle started at 8:30 a. m., June 2, and continued about four minutes. Destroyers were present, but had no chance to take part, as the submarine was smashed quickly by the merchantmen's 4-inch stern gun."

"This liner was the first attack-bound merchantman to be attacked by a submarine since von Tirpitz announced his U-boat policy, nearly two years ago. She since has been attacked four or five times."

Attacked in a Fog. "She was steaming at full speed through a fog under convoy when the submarine appeared 150 yards off the starboard bow. "The skipper turned his wheel head on for the enemy, with the intention of cutting him in two. The U-boat maneuvered so the line passed to starboard by about twenty feet. As the steamer sped past, the U-boat, a big one, well up on the surface, drifted along the port side and a shell from the howitzer on the port quarter was fired, but missed."

"The skipper turned his wheel chief officer, 'If she's got a stern tube we are done for.' Just then the 4-inch stern gun belched and sank the submarine by about twenty feet. As the steamer sped past, the U-boat, a big one, well up on the surface, drifted along the port side and a shell from the howitzer on the port quarter was fired, but missed."

"Three hours later, after the fog had lifted, a periscope was sighted off the port bow, and a shot from the forward port gun caused the U-boat to submerge quickly. Two destroyers discharged four depth bombs. It is believed this submarine also was destroyed. A similar encounter occurred shortly before dusk on June 1, and it is believed bombs also destroyed the third submarine."

On the way into port yesterday the vessel was accompanied by several American destroyers and a hydro-aeroplane.

Like many other mothers, Mrs. Hockenull has felt the pangs of one who has suffered loss for she has sacrificed her only son who fell in the war but she makes no complaint bearing up bravely as do all the mothers of England and France who have suffered similar bereavements. She has been associated with the most prominent relief work in the great metropolis and is eager to get back and again go with the rest to do all possible for the great cause. She will be here but a few days and in due time will again be among the people with whom she has labored so faithfully and capably caring for the noble defenders of the land and the innocent sufferers from the shameful cruelties of the Hun.

QUINCY A CITY WITHOUT A BOND DEBT. The Quincy Whig tells of an interesting ceremonial recently staged when the last of the city bonds was burned constituting a spectacular feature of the centennial celebration. Many thousands' worth of cancelled bonds were burned, the last of the series having been paid off in July, 1917. Quincy enjoys the distinction of being free from debt and it is a noteworthy fact that this condition has been made possible thru the profits of the water department.

In the recent ceremonial there was a notable parade in which the fire department had a special part and subsequently gave a demonstration of answering a fire call. Following the parade came a speaking program with a splendid address by former Governor Charles S. Deneen. Another of the speakers was a former mayor of Quincy, who presented the narrative of the two former governors of Illinois, who have lived in Quincy, John Wood and Thomas C. Carlin. One of the best features of the program was the war time address by Sergeant Wayman, so well known in Morgan county.

CHARGES DEMANDED BY THE GOVERNMENT

Drastic Orders from the Postmaster General To Telephone Companies.

The following orders have been issued by Postmaster General Burleson to all telephone companies regarding charges to be made from the Postmaster General's Office of the Postmaster General, Washington, Sept. 14, 1918. Order No. 1931, issued by me under date of August 28th, provided certain charges for all installations of telephones on and after Sept. 1st, 1918, also a charge for the "moving" of telephones. On account of the many inquiries regarding the order, the following instructions are issued:

1. Installation charges made effective by Order No. 1931 shall be referred to by telephone companies and collected from subscribers as "Service Connection Charges" and shall be based on the minimum net rate charged to the subscriber. These service connection charges shall be collected from all applicants for new or additional service at the time of application and before such new service or additional service is established.

2. In cases of "Changes of Name" or where no lapse of service occurs, the minimum charge of $3.00 shall apply in all cases.

3. Service connection charges do not apply to extension bells, push buttons, buzzers or miscellaneous equipment of like character, nor to directory listings.

4. With the exceptions above noted the service connection charge shall apply to each class of service and class of equipment furnished the applicant for which the company shall have a regular separate established rate and the amount of the service connection charge shall be determined by the amount of the regular established rate, in accordance with the terms of Order No. 1931.

5. All subscribers who pay the service connection charges established under Order No. 1931 shall be relieved of any other service connection charges, cancellation charges, charges made in liquidation of damages on account of short terms, and short term rates; and the use of one year or any other period in excess of one month as a minimum contract period for telephone service.

6. The "moving charge" referred to in Order No. 1931 applies only to changes in the location of "inside moves." For purposes of equipment on the premises. Such changes are generally known as economy in administration and for the convenience of the public the charge for moving a telephone set from one location to another on the same premises shall be $3. The charge for moving all other equipment from one location to another on the same premises shall be based on the cost of labor and materials.

7. Order No. 1931 abolishes the distinction heretofore made by some companies between a new installation or a new service connection and an outside move; and all changes in the location of the subscriber which have heretofore been described as outside moves will hereafter be treated as new "service connections" and subject to the service connection charges of Order No. 1931 and of these instructions supplementary thereto.

8. Service connection charges do not apply to the service known as "service stations" or "switching service"; and they do not supersede special installation or construction charges or mileage charges of any kind.

(Signed) A. S. Burleson, Postmaster General.
